JFK resolution introed

A joint resolution calling for the release of classified information on the assassination of John F. Kennedy was introduced in Congress Thursday. When asked whether or not there would have been a resolution if not for Oliver Stone's film "JFK," Sen. David Boren, chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, said, "I think this legislation would exist without the movie. But obviously the film was very provocative especially for the younger generation. It has heightened interest in the whole issue."
